Note from the Directors

The show is a play within a play and the play happens in front (or behind) the play that you are watching while the play is playing. Yes. You now understand how difficult a show this is. Enormous set aside, this is a thinking actor's show. The complexity with which this play was written is sure to keep you guessing on how it will all turn out.

A farce, by definition is a comic dramatic work using buffoonery and horseplay typically including crude characterizations and ludicrously improbable situations. We agree whole-heartedly!

We have had such a great time putting this show together for you to enjoy. The rehearsals, set builds, and moments where we just get to run around buses is made so much better with the talents of our students, some really terrific parents and our new friends from the community that stepped up to lend a hand.

Take a moment to realize the time put into an endeavor like this. We made essentially a two-story house on stage with students that, let us just say, don't have a lot of time with a tape measurer behind them. Our crew learned valuable building techniques and since we include our cast in making set pieces, we have a small mighty army of students who now can use power tools without having to dial 9-1- first.

We sincerely hope you have a great time watching our production.

Frank J. Tieri and Katie Conant, Directors

Behind the Dressing Room Doors

DOTTY OTLEY (Mrs. Clackett) makes a welcome return to the stage to create the role of Mrs. Clackett after playing Mrs. Hackett, Britain's most famous lollipop lady ('Ooh. I can't 'ardly 'old me lolly up!') in over 320 episodes of TV's On the Zebras. Her many stage appearances include her critically acclaimed portrayal of Fru Säckett, the comic char in Strindberg's Scenes from the Charnelhouse. Her first appearance ever? In a school production of Henry IV Part 1 - as the old bag-lady, Mrs. Duckett.

BELINDA BLAIR (Flavia Brent) has been on the stage since the age of four, when she made her debut in Sinbad the Sailor at the old Croydon Hippodrome as one of Miss Toni Tanner's Ten Tapping Tots. She subsequently danced her way round this country, Southern Africa, and the Far East in shows like Zippedy-Dooda! and Here Come les Girls! More recently she has been seen in such comedy hits as Don't Mr. Duddle!, Who's Been Sleeping in My Bed?, and Twice Two Is Sex. She is married to scriptwriter Terry Wough, who has contributed lead-in material to most of TV's chat shows. They have two sons and three retrievers.

Dignity is the straitjacket of the soul. Its loss is our first stumbling step towards sanity. - Friedrich Nietzsche

GARRY LEJEUNE (Roger Tramplemain) while still at drama school won the coveted Laetitia Daintyman Medal for Violence. His television work includes Police!, Crime Squad, Swat, Forensic, and The Nick, but he is probably best-known as 'Cornetto', the ice-cream salesman who stirs the hearts of all the lollipop ladies in On the Zebra.

SELSDON MOWBRAY (Burglar) first 'trod the boards' at the age of 12 - playing Lucius in a touring production of Julius Caesar, with his father, the great Chelmsford Mowbray, in the lead. Since then he has served in various local reps, and claims to have appeared with every company to have toured Shakespeare in the past half-century, working his way up through the Mustardseeds and the various Boys and Sons of, to the Balthazars, Benvolios, and Le Beaus; then the Slenders, Lennoxes, Trinculos, Snouts, and Froths; and graduating to the Scroops, Poloniuses, and Aguecheeks. His most recent film appearance was as Outraged Pensioner in Green Willies.

Sophomore year, she was co-head for makeup crew on OHS's first movie, N2! She also was apart of that years winter show as well and was casted as MiMi in Guys and Dolls in the spring! Last fall, she got to play the role as Miss Scarlet in Clue, then backup girls in Catch Me If You Can. She is so ready for her final year's fall show to be complete and for all to enjoy!

Thomas Partin (Freshman, Assistant Sound Crew Head)

Thomas would like to thank his dad for letting him try stuff even if it gets in the way of his work, and for always supporting him.

BROOKE ASHTON (Vicki) is probably best known as the girl wearing nothing but 'good, honest, natural froth' in the Hauptbahnhofbrau lager commercial. Her television appearances range from Girl at Infants' School in On the Zebras to Girl in Massage Parlour in On Probation. Cinemagoers saw her in The Girl in Room 14, where she played the Girl in Room 312.

The most important technological advance in history, so far as the maintenance of moral standards is concerned, was the invention of the keyhole. - George Santayana

FREDERICK FELLOWES (Philip Brent) has appeared in many popular television series, including Calling Casualty, Cardiac Arrest!, Out-Patients, and In-Patients. On stage he was most recently seen in the controversial all-male version of The Trojan Women. He is happily married, and lives near Crawley, where his wife breeds pedigree dogs. 'If she ever leaves me,' he says, 'it will probably be for an Irish wolfhound!'

ROBIN HOUSEMONGER (Author) was born in Worcester Park, Surrey, into a family 'unremarkable in every way except for an aunt with red hair who used to sing all the high twiddly bits from The Merry Widow over the tea-table.' He claims to have been the world's most unsuccessful gents hosiery wholesaler, and began writing 'to fill the long hours between one hosiery order and the next.' He turned this experience into his very first play, Socks Before Marriage, which ran in the West End for nine years. Two of his subsequent plays, Briefs Encounter and Hanky Panky, broke box office records in Perth, Western Australia. Nothing On is his seventeenth play.

LLOYD DALLAS (Director) 'read English at Cambridge, and stagecraft at the local benefits office.' He has directed plays in most parts of Britain, winning the South of Scotland Critics' Circle Special Award in 1969. In 1972 he directed a highly successful season for the National Theatre of Sri Lanka. In recent years he has probably become best known for his brilliant series of 'Shakespeare in Summer' productions in the parks of the inner London boroughs.

Desperation tells a thousand tales - and each of those thousand begets a thousand more. - Moldovian proverb

This is Faith's second year in Standing O Theatre Company, and she is looking forward to performing the show. She is so thankful for this amazing opportunity and would love to continue to perform throughout the years!! She played Audience Member in Clue her freshman year, and she has been apart of the improv team for every show. Faith would like to thank her mom and dad for putting up with her crazy schedule. She would also like to say that this opportunity would not have been able to happen if it weren't for the love of God. There have been many ups and downs, but Faith believes that anything can be conquered through Christ and that is how she is here to perform for you today! She hopes you enjoy the performance and make sure to silence your phones and keep all "Noises Off"!

Mark is very much looking forward to pulling this show together. He wants to thank everyone, especially all of the dedicated crew members, parent volunteers, T, Conant, Mr. Bedell, Mr. Kucherov, and all else who helped out in the making of this set. It looks amazing, and it would not have been possible without these people.

Parker Dove (Sophomore, Tim Allgood)

This is Parker's second time doing the Fall Play. He thinks this show is hilarious and cannot wait to put it on! He's never done a show with such a small cast where every character is vital! It's gonna be a good one, he can feel it.

Laila Abouhaiba (Freshman, Poppy Norton-Taylor)

The Noises Off production is one Laila will never forget. It truly has been an incredible experience for her and she's grateful to have been a part of it. By being on both the crew and cast, she's learned multiple new terms and construction techniques. However, this isn't Laila's first production. In middle school, she starred in a few musicals and plays; A Christmas Carol, Lion King Jr and Shrek Jr. She began acting in the seventh grade at Traughber Jr. High and has been continuing every since. Without Mrs. Conant or Mr. Tieri, she wouldn't be on stage doing what she loves. She thanks them for giving her the opportunity and spending long hours in a day making this show a success. And if it weren't for the incredible cast, she would've never found her way. The cast and crew of Noises Off is a family of hard working and determined people. So thank you, thank you! And congratulations to all!
